WELCOME TO THE TABLE: This morning at 11:30 Mass, Declan Faloon will receive Holy Communion for the first time! Congratulations to Declan as he arrives at this wonderful milestone on his faith journey.

EASTER SEASON READINGS: During the Easter Season, from the Resurrection of the Lord to Pentecost, no Old Testament (Jewish scripture) readings are proclaimed at Mass. We hear only from the Christian scripture or New Testament. The first reading is selected from Acts of the Apostles, which tells the history of the early church.

PASTA NIGHT – SATURDAY, APRIL 28TH AT 6PM: Make plans to join us in Mary Beattie Hall for an evening of great food and fellowship! The meal includes a pasta main course with salad, bread and wine. Cost is $20 per person and $10 for children under 12. Contact Pam DiNardo or Mary Dalipaj if you require more information.

A WORD OF APPRECIATION FROM LESLIE: My husband Bob and I would like to sincerely thank Fr. Pierre and the parishioners of St. Margaret Mary for the tremendous support they have given us during Bob's recent medical crisis. We have greatly appreciated the phone calls, emails, cards and prayers. Others have provided practical help in the form of hot cups of coffee brought to me at the office and delicious homemade soup enjoyed by Bob and myself. All of these kind gestures lifted our spirits at a very difficult time. Fr. Pierre visited Bob in the hospital frequently and this meant a great deal to both of us.

I am happy to report that Bob is now home from the hospital. The road to recovery will take some time but we are very thankful to be able to begin that journey.
